Interview Summary D

Sir:

Applicants wish to thank the Examiner for the courtesies extended to the undersigned during the telephone interview. The Office had requested that the undersigned participate in the interview to discuss the references, the claims and the prior art rejections. The undersigned submitted that the claims were allowable over the prior art of record for the reasons set forth in Applicants' last response. In addition, the undersigned stated that any proposed amendment to the claims would have to be approved by the assignee. No agreement was reached as to the patentability of any claim during the interview. The Office also indicated that claim 1 may have a 112 issue and that should would be raised, if at all, in a non-final Office Action.
